Whitehall, September 24.

AN humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, Clergy, Gentlemen, and other the Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Stamford, in the County of Lincoln, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Exeter.

Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Madrid, Sept. 14. The Marqueſs de Grimaldo being recovered from an Indiſpoſition, brought upon him by Grief for the Loſs of his Son who died ſome Months ago, ſet out To-Day for Balſain where the Court reſides at preſent, to reſume the uſual Exerciſe of his Office of Secretary of State. On the 12th Inſtant died the Count de Fuen Salda-na, Son in Law to the Count d'Aguilar, in the 28th Year of his Age, leaving no Iſſue behind him. The Duke de Varaguas is preparing to ſet out for Cambray, on his private Affairs. The Duke of Liria is preparing to go to France, to ſee the moſt Chriſtian King's Coronation. They have been under an Alarm in Catalonia, upon a Rumour that the Ottoman Fleet was come into thoſe Seas; whereupon all the Troops in that Principality put themſelves in Motion, to guard thoſe Parts of that Coaſt where Deſcents may moſt eaſily be made.

Stockholm, Sept. 5, O. S. The King and Queen of Sweden arrived at Gottenbourg two or three Days ſooner laſt Week than they were expected, yet their Reception by the Inhabitants was very magnificent. Their Majeſties reſolved to ſtay there till the 3d Inſtant, when the whole Court was to ſet out for Hioentorp; and when the King has finiſhed the appointed Review there, the Queen is to come to the Palace of Stromholm, and ſtay there till the King has alſo reviewed the Regiment of Life-Guards, which is to rendezvous at Upſal the 22d of this Month; and four or five Days after the King and Queen will return hither. On Sunday laſt a Muſcovite Brigantine arrived here, with about 100 Swediſh Priſoners from Peterſbourg, whence they came the 14th of laſt Month. Laſt Week arrived here alſo a Ship from Revel, by which we have an Account, that the Muſcovites have begun to build ſome Fortifications at a Place about five or ſix Leagues from Revel, where there is an Harbour ſaid to be capable of receiving a great Number of Ships of the largeſt Burthen; and it is reported the Czar has ordered it to be called New Malta.

Turin, Sept. 19, N. S. Sunday the 13th Inſtant, his Majeſty with the Prince of Piedmont arrived here from Rivoli. Laſt Tueſday Evening his Majeſty with the Prince went to the Camp, and the next Day the Prince was declared Colonel of that Regiment of Dragoons diſtinguiſhed by the Name of Piemonteſe, at the Head of which his Royal Highneſs ſaluted his Majeſty, who alſo rode up to him and returned the Salute; after which the whole Body of the Troops were exerciſed in his Majeſty's Preſence, and then his Majeſty with the Prince returned to his Head Quarters at Carpené. Madame Royale was taken ill on Wedneſday laſt, but is ſince recovered of her Indiſpoſition. The Chevalier Veganego, who tranſacted Buſineſs here for the Republick of Genoa, tho' without a Character, died here the 16th Inſtant.

Whitehall, Sept. 21. Letters from Lisbon of the 25th of Auguſt, N. S. give an Account that the King of Portugal has made a new Alvara or Regulation for preventing the Running of Goods. It bears Date the 9th of the ſame Month, was publiſhed on the 20th, and is as follows.

UPON Information that the Penalties impoſed by the Foral Law of the Cuſtom-Houſe, and by the Extraordinary Law of the 6th of September 1705, are not ſufficient to prevent the Detriment which my Treaſury ſuffers, by means of Goods run from on board of Packet-Boats, and other Ships, which ought to have been diſpatched at the Cuſtom-Houſe, and to have paid their reſpective Duties: And finding it abſolutely neceſſary to eſtabliſh new Cautions and Remedies, in order to avoid ſo pre-
